Denise Schipani

Usually I shy away from 'teen-focused' things, because they tend to be cory and silly, and who wants to be associated with that? And Dale Robertson, who wanted to be a rancher more than he wanted to be an actor. Or: Natives of the Amazon rain forest. Beside her, waiting for food, was Droopy, a cocker spaniel whose owner says he has the most beautiful face in the world.

Confessions of a Former Fashion Writer: I Knew Nothing About Fashion

We had no idea what the readers wanted, so we did whatever occurred to us. Unthinkingly, he addressed her as Miss H—.

Hot From (Old) Hollywood

Tenderly placing the hat on a chair in the dressing room she went to the bedroom to pat her hair in place and when she returned, there lay the beloved hat on the floor, a tattered wreck.

Becoming a Real Poet: Confessions of a Hallmark Writer

I should say interviews, because I spoke on that one day with many people. Most trendsetters do not understand the concept of design at all. Characters are counting on me 13.

Confessions of a Teenage Author ~: March 2007

Each wants more lines of dialogue and footage than the other, and they glare at each other until the cameras turn.

All Falls Down: Confessions From An Ex

Jasmine Mans poem Footnotes for Kanye was an antecedent for this poem, but the thing that sparked this poem was a conversation that I had with a friend about our favorite rappers, and I ended up going on a 30 min rant about Kanye West.

Confessions of a Former Women's Magazine Writer

Landing the Job My college professor took a dim view of my writing skills. Soon after that, Gioia and his good friend, Professor Michael Peich at West Chester University, got their heads together over a bottle of wine and decided to establish a new writing conference.
