'Vengeful' poems

Bacchus swore he never found, In the Universe all round, Two such thirsty souls as my friend and I. And by expressing anger I'll become unwound. It is important not because there is anything very novel in the contention, but because it is opportune; and it is opportune because at the present moment we need to have emphasis laid on the vital element that is common both to creative poetry and creative prose.

Salt

Unlike Shakespeare Milton is superbly egoistic.

Poetry discussion by contemporary poets [Archive]

In order to make the best of himself, the average youth must first make money.

Climate Change

As Saint Brigid is our patron saint, we make crosses every year but this year was very special! Divided into three parts, this study discusses the two libraries of Henry James, lists the original inventory with codes identifying present locations, and in a final essay explores the ways in which these books influenced what James wrote and what his characters read.
