††Catholic CHRIST THE IDEAL OF THE MONK Abbot Marmion Spiritual Conferences 1926

Christ, the ideal of the priest : spiritual conferences (Book, 1952) [localize-img.justmote.me]

This monastic sacramental is always at our disposal : when we have recourse to it a new influx of divine life flows into our souls. The Abbot, Christ's Eepresentativo IV. Each degree of the union of his soul with God, each step that he takes in the path of holiness, will render him more powerful with God, more fruitful in his supernatural action on minds and hearts.

Columba Marmion

In return for surrendering all that he is, all that he has, and all that he might become, the monk receives all that he needs although not necessarily all that he wants! We do not need to spend time looking as other ways.

Christ the Ideal of the Monk

Does he dissemble the obligation of self-renunciation?. Let us, too, beseech the Father and Christ Jesus, His Word, to grant us this light of faith. Why are they in such a hurry? John Paul II examines why Paul treats virginity in this way.
