Homelessness and Domestic Violence

Preparation to handle domestic violence cases as you become aware of them, will include gathering critical information about the resources and supports available in your community. Enhance your knowledge about family homelessness as a result of domestic violence. Homes for families HFF is a statewide advocacy organization for Emergency Assistance Shelter Providers committed to ending family homelessness through permanent and emergency solutions.

The Community's Role in Reducing the Impact of Domestic Violence in Times of Emergency

You may be the catalyst that provides the hope needed to change and even save a life! Domestic violence creates vulnerability to homelessness for women and children with limited economic resources. Through the Program, we administer funding that supports emergency shelters and services for survivors and their dependents.
