The History of English Dictionaries

A Dictionary of Modern Usage Second Edition 1965 Oxford University Press:New York, Oxford.

British Slang Dictionary

Writers who observe the poignancy sometimes given by inversion, but fail to observe that 'sometimes' means 'when exclamation is appropriate', adopt inversion as an infallible enlivener; they aim at freshness and attain frigidity. Digitisation of the DNB was performed by the Alliance Photosetting Company in Pondicherry, India.

Dictionary

The occasion was also remembered by newspaper The Guardian, that published on Johnson's biography.

American Heritage Dictionary

When Murray became the editor, there was no defined publisher for the gigantic dictionary. No highlighting of text, no writing in the margins, and no missing pages. Post on the Oxford University Press's blog about the first American dictionary and the misconception involving Noah Webster.
