Etruscans

Florence: Casa Editrice Leo S. The shape varied and could be round or square. The rivalry between Greek trade in the western Mediterranean and that carried on between the Etruscans and had already come to a head at the battle of Alalia in 535 bce, a battle which the Greeks claimed to have won but which so upset them that they determined to abandon Corsica to Etruscan and Carthaginian influence.

Daily Life of the Etruscans by Jacques Heurgon (1964, Hardcover)

There are several wall paintings of feasts and banquet scenes that feature both men and women enjoying their meals together. According to Pliny the Elder, Vulca worked for the king of Rome Tarquinio Prisco, who commissioned him to make a statue of Jupiter and to make the Sanctuary of Potonaccio in Veii, an ancient Etruscan city, where he made the wonderful Apollo that is kept to this day at the National Etruscan Museum of Villa Giulia in Rome. They are therefore the owners of the culture.
