Work out an employee's period of continuous service

There are some rights that you have from day one of employment and others that you accrue with time. This clarifies that there would be a continuity of employment of an employee if there is a change of service provider and if the new service provider hires him or her within 13 weeks of change. If a job offer is withdrawn Whether you can take any action will depend on if the job offer was made subject to any conditions.

Employment

It takes our entire team united to accomplish this mission. Does my first and last day count towards my continuity? Some of these arise by virtue of statute, and some have developed as a result of case law. For example, your employer may want to extend your probationary period in order to have more time to assess your performance.
