Robichaud: Whereas the government has undertaken to blend the Provincial Sales Tax with the federal Goods and Services Tax on the promise that it would create an advantage, among others, to the retail sector in New Brunswick and therefore to consumers; WHEREAS tax inclusive pricing provisions would force retailers to incur exorbitant costs which could not be balanced through any other means than to be passed on to consumers, thus eliminating economic benefits claimed by this measure: BE IT RESOLVED that this House ask the government to consider foregoing the tax inclusive pricing provisions when it legislates the blended sales tax scheme. Mining interests already have rented out entire platoons of lobbyists to make their case for lifting the ban - and they have a good case to make. Is there going to be an energy code for houses as well as for buildings? The first method uses resin-grafted with calixarene a synthetic material, indecently expensive! Financial Impact of Refurbishment Cost Overruns To illustrate the potential financial impact of refurbishment cost increases, the FAO has modeled two scenarios of increased refurbishment costs relative to the base case.
