Why Parents and Kids Get Estranged

As you know, we can run into emotional problems and become victims when we rely too heavily on external validation. After becoming estranged from her own parents, the journalist and researcher Becca Bland started Stand Alone, a charitable organization in the U.

Emotional Invalidation: A Form of Emotional Abuse

Counts is one who I would highly recommend.

The Emotional Meaning of Home

With the struggle for existence dominating all of life, there was little time for childhood or childrearing as we think of them today.

Emotional Side of Caregiving

When it comes to loneliness, Bible has many verses that can offer solace in a time of need.

Start Dinner Conversations with Your Child

Guilt in caring for care receivers comes in many forms.
