“Losers Weepers!” 3

By the 1800s, the expression started to appear as we now see it today. Flying off the turnbuckles, or locked up, it is all Tovah Nicks in this match filled with hair pulling, trash talking, camel clutches, headscissors, sleeperholds, bow and arrow, splashes, schoolgirl pins, clotheslines, pedigree, facebuster, stunner, and MORE! With many awards to her credit, Banks also held a masters of fine arts degree in film and media arts from Temple University. The modern version, often stated as Finders keepers, losers weepers, dates from the mid-1800s and is no longer a legal precept.

“Losers Weepers!”

Beat in the corners, flung off the ropes, laid out center ring. Tovah kicks, stomps, punches, knees, slams, rips, tears, chokes, stretches, bends, and twists Lizzy into a mangled jobber mess! This is a children's rhyme and sounds childish when used by adults.

What Does Finders Keepers Losers Weepers Mean?

We are the only two people here at your house! The newest feature from Codycross is that you can actually synchronize your gameplay and play it from another device. If you find something, you are entitled to keep it.
