Methods of Separating Mixtures Activity

Were not the one conception different in the feeling or sentiment from the other, there would be no difference betwixt them. On the contrary, The Philosopher says Ethic. Human nature is body and soul united as one.

Treatise On Separate Substances By Aquinas: The Opinion Of Avicenna And His Arguments For It

For this does not follow: There is a characteristic trait which is better than any other mutually exclusive trait, and it is found in something which, so far as this trait is concerned, is supreme- therefore this thing is supreme in an unqualified sense. That it is not their is manifest from this, that the or essence of a thing is completely comprised within it: whatever, then, extends to anything beyond it, is not its essence.

Tertullian A Treatise on the Soul Chapters 1 to 28

How should that not be false, which depends for its evidence on a falsehood? Kraus also notes that this is rather remarkable given the existence of works attributed to Stephanus of Alexandria in the Arabic tradition.

A Treatise on Electricity and Magnetism

This treatise, therefore, of human nature seems intended for a system of the sciences. Like us, the human nature of Christ is of both orders: the body is material and the soul is spiritual.

ST. THOMAS AQUINAS, SUMMA THEOLOGICA

Take also ivy-plants, never mind how young: I observe their attempts from the very first to grasp, objects above them, and outrunning everything else, to hang on to the highest thing, preferring as they do to spread over walls with their leafy web and woof rather than creep on the ground and be trodden under by every foot that likes to crush them. He also uses evidence from travel literature to point out that many non-Europeans deny what were taken to be innate moral maxims and that some groups even lack the idea of a God. But there are other sins which proceed from deliberation: and these sins are all the more imputed to man according as he is more excellent.
