Why is death so unfair? Recorded at Natural Sound Studios in Maynard, Massachusetts. It is not to be confused with the roundel, a similar verse form with repeating refrain.

The Best Rondels and Roundels of All Time with Definitions, Examples and a Brief History

French rondel, or reading the Gestes de Doon de Mayence, as I found her yesternight, pretending sleep, the artful, with the corner of the scroll thrusting forth from under her pillow..

Rondel

I remember well that, at the siege of Retters, there was a little, sleek, fat clerk of the name of Chaucer, who was so apt at rondel, sirvente, or tonson, that no man dare give back a foot from the walls, lest he find it all set down in his rhymes and sung by every underling and varlet in the camp. When I praise her, or hear her praises raised, I recall how recently she brought me pleasure; Then my heart floods like an overflowing bay And makes me wish to dress for my own bier— God keep her soul, I can no better say.

Rondel. (From The Duke Of Orleans) by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

While traveling with her, any number of musical people could have described to him what they heard while in Asia. Fred Pompeo on Lead Vocals with Frank Murphy, Lenn Scolameiro and Donald Dallessandro on background vocals. She was the joy of my youth, and now she is gone.

Claude Debussy

It was customarily regarded as a challenge to arrange for these refrains to contribute to the meaning of the poem in as succinct and poignant a manner as possible. Think ye thus to me All my life long, as ye have done? The were the hand clappers and screamers on this track.

What does rondel mean
