Questia

The cry of this epistle is that Christians might discover the liberty of the sons of God in accordance with all that God has planned for man in the way of freedom and enjoyment. Importance: We are free in Christ, and yet freedom is a privilege. He has a right to be supported as an Apostle to preach to others, even the Law so teaches; but he foregoes that liberty that none may accuse him of selfish motives.

Galatians: The Charter of Christian Liberty by Merrill C. Tenney (9780802804495)

Indeed, on a deeper level, it is only the believer, liberated by the Gospel from a self-centred, self-preserving, self-justifying keeping of the law, who can keep these laws within their intrinsic intention: a God-centred, God-focused life that seeks to praise, honour and glorify God because he is God. You can have freedom by applying the truths in the living letter to the Galatians to your life. The law puts us under bondage Grace sets us in the liberty of the sons of God.

The 48th Book of the Bible

His Good News did not come from human insight; it came from God. Thus, the Law under the Gospel guides Paul with what is sinful and what is not, while the Gospel impels him to deny himself for the sake of others. Their past condition of bondage Galatians 4:8 ii.
