An Unjust Law Is No Law At All: Excerpts from “Letter from Birmingham Jail”

The democratically chosen governments of all three countries provide free health care, education, and lifetime retirement income. That divides the number of days by 7, since there are 7 days in a week. The 1 in the formula establishes Saturdays and Sundays as weekend days, and excludes them from the total.

Difference

There is no private ownership of economic resources, with a central government controlling all facets of production.

make no difference at all

I am but waiting for you.

Phrase there is no difference at all

How does one determine whether a law is just or unjust? An unjust law is a code that is out of harmony with the moral law. According to the theory developed by the German philosopher, economist, and political theorist , pure communism results in a society in which all people are equal and there is no need for money or the accumulation of individual wealth. The two terms are often used interchangeably, but these economic and political theories are not the same.

Romans 3:22 And this righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no distinction,

There is no difference between people. We will have to repent in this generation not merely for the hateful words and actions of the bad people but for the appalling silence of the good people. Economic production focuses on meeting the basic needs of the people, rather than a wasteful excess of unneeded consumer goods.

Calculate the difference between two dates

We must use time creatively, in the knowledge that the time is always ripe to do right. Economy Planned By Central government Central government Ownership of Economic Resources All economic resources are publicly owned and controlled by the government. The ownership is acquired through a democratically elected government.
