Not only does he observe how different verses and sections of the book develop common themes and respond to the other declarations about God and the society of Israel within the book he notes, for instance, the interplay between the Oracles against the Nations and the visions , he points out structures within the principal sections of the text.

Amos 8 Bible Commentary

Esau was the founder of Edom. Since most of the prophecies of Amos concern coming judgment on either the nations surrounding Israel or judgment on Israel itself, he was a man with a burden.

Amos Chapter 1 Explained

Israel would be punished because they oppressed the righteous and the poor, they committed terrible forms of immorality, they kept pledged clothes overnight, and they became drunk in the temple with wine purchased with money gained by extortion and bribery. Through the period of the divided monarch the southern kingdom of Judah saw a succession of kings, some godly and some ungodly Uzziah was one of the better kings of Judah. God announced that He would not pass by ... Israel in mercy anymore.
