Only under special circumstances may secrecy be ethically broken, such as when a patient has been the victim or subject of a crime to which the nurse or doctor is a witness.

Underwood & Webb, School Law for the Teachers: Concepts and Applications

More recently, because of the complexities of modern-day living and the heightened awareness of an educated public, ethical issues related to health care have surfaced as a major concern of both healthcare providers and recipients of these services.

Legal foundation of education

Of course, if a patient discloses the identity of his or her contacts, health professionals are mandated to inform them in accordance with applicable state laws. The following paragraphs mentions the ways the governments laid out plans to implement this law. In response to McDuffy, Massachusetts reformed its school finance system, instituting a foundation aid formula.
