The Naked and the Dead by Norman Mailer

When Gallagher gives the Japanese soldier a cigarette to smoke, the soldier closes his eyes in relaxation. All books come with free bookmarks.

Sally Mann: The naked and the dead

The characters are all hateful, spiteful, little men. Acclaimed as a successful expression of the futility of war, Norman Mailer's The Naked and the Dead follows the story of an army platoon of foot soldiers fighting for the possession of the Japanese-held island of Anopopei during World War II. Rooney's genius lies in her ability to track her characters' subtle shifts in power, both within themselves and in relation to each other, and the ways they do and don't know each other; they both feel most like themselves when they're together, but they still have disastrous failures of communication.

Collecting The Naked and The Dead by Mailer, Norman

Owner's signature on flyleaf; a mild obscenity on the dedication page.

The naked and the dead. (1948 edition)

They're the smartest kids in their class, and they forge an intimacy when Connell picks his mother up from Marianne's house. There was a certain vacancy in his face, like the vacancy of actors who play American congressmen.

The Naked and the Dead by Norman Mailer

Mailer also writes with the breathless, straightforward prose you would expect from a journalist yet paints a convincing picture of his characters and their surroundings. About this Item: Rinehart, 1948.
