Notre Dame and the culture it inspired

Instead, on that first, exploratory trip, we found our pleasure in walking. So came all those in on him ; and his heart, As out of sleep suddenly struck astart, Danced, and his flesh took fire of theirs, and grief Was as a last year's leaf Blown dead far down the wind's way ; and he set His pale mouth to the brightest mouth it met That laughed for love against his lips, and bade Follow ; and in following all his blood grew glad And as again a sea-bird's ; for the wind Took him to bathe him deep round breast and brow Not as it takes a dead leaf drained and thinned. The memory had drawn itself too far back, even in ten years, to remain as anything much more than a dream.

Book review / A regard for feelings

Here is no place At once for these and one of poisonous race. Evelyn was a good deal out of sorts, said Hugh, intimating by a kind of pout or swell of his very well-covered, manly, extremely handsome, perfectly upholstered body he was almost too well dressed always, but presumably had to be, with his little job at Court that his wife had some internal ailment, nothing serious, which, as an old friend, Clarissa Dalloway would quite understand without requiring him to specify. Take my song's salutation ; and on me Breathe back the benediction of thy sea.
