I think my daughter would write that the birth of her brother was an event that has shaped her life in the most positive way, because she had to wait for him for too long. With our living option in mind the next step is to make use of an exercise called mental contrasting.

What's your attitude towards life?

Regardless of the problems we face in life, it is preferable to evaluate them correctly, to try to find the best solutions and to act to solve them. My friend, if you want to be the best in what you do and create extraordinary results in your industry, make it your attitude to seek improvement and commit to mastery. Successful people choose to do the impossible, they wake up early, they dream extremely big, they break the status quo, and they work at night in order to make their dreams come true.
