How George Muller Provided for His Orphans?

In fact, there were more orphans in prison than any other single group of people. Before they got the bread passed out to the orphans, there was another knock at the door. He then began 17 years of missionary work across the world in which he travelled over 200,000 miles teaching and preaching.

How George Muller Provided for His Orphans?

The couple traveled extensively, visiting a total of 42 countries including cities in Europe, India, China, and Australia.

George Mueller: Hungry Orphans Fed Miraculously

George wanted to get to his mission as quickly as possible; however, he became very sick.

How George Muller Provided for His Orphans?

Personally, I am in awe of Müller's decision and must admit my faith is hugely challenged , but like St Paul I have mentioned the financial needs of my own ministry. Give them beds to sleep in and give the children a safe home to live in with their mommy and their daddy. George Muller stared at the beggar girl.

George Muller: The Guardian of Bristol's Orphans (Christian Heroes: Then & Now): Geoff Benge, Janet Benge: 8601404630224: localize-img.justmote.me: Books

Great beginner look at the life of a faith filled man. He simply sat them down at the table and confidently said grace. His main concern was that it should be seen that God was providing all the needs as a result of prayer and faith, without anyone being asked or approached.

How George Muller Provided for His Orphans?

George's friends saw a change in him immediately.

How George Muller Provided for His Orphans?

They obtained their passports using letters from their parents, which George forged, and sold books and possessions to make the trip. Sometimes God gave them stuff instantly and other times it took days and weeks.
