'Wolfwalkers' Review: Cartoon Saloon Hits New Artistic Heights In Return To Irish Folklore

It is the people who more than any other have borne the brunt of the conflict and endured the greatest disruption. He spent 15 years in prison for a crime he didn't commit and the film follows his time in prison and the legal battle to secure his freedom. New approaches to the border Recent attempts to explore the social and economic impact of the border have been matched by grassroots efforts to record the recent and longer histories of the border counties and to explore the meaning and significance of the border.

President pays tribute to 50 years of Irish crafts and designs

For Brian Turner, one of the main conference organisers, there is a direct link between complexities and tensions of the borderlands and the growth of local historical societies and local museums. A safe Unionist constituency since the foundation of the state. To deny or stall a unity referendum is to undermine this principle.

Review of Mark O'Rowe's The Approach, Streaming From Dublin

It describes in some detail the Library of Foreign Language Film Clips, a database of 10,000+ clips taken from foreign language feature films and tagged for the spoken vocabulary and for cultural, discourse, and linguistic features prominent in the clip.

Review of Mark O'Rowe's The Approach, Streaming From Dublin

John is emblematic of the changes in the North. Brexit and the centenary of bloody atrocities during the war of independence have stirred historic grievances against the old colonial master.
