Islamophobia Literature Review

In 1935, as the American government prepared to give independence to the Philippines, Muslim chieftains petitioned the US president not to include them in the new republic because they recognized that they would become second-class citizens of a Catholic-dominated country but their petition was ignored and the Catholic majority gained their independence and control over the Muslim territories Rasul, 2017. Indeed, in many ways, for all its problems, contemporary accounts of globalization — not to mention the current ecological crisis in the age of the Anthropocene — reflect a growing awareness of global interdependence first presented in Wallerstein's work.
