That makes Kazuya and Yukina the ancestors of Chizuru, explaining her pretty looks. However, with her destined meeting with school's famous genius as well as problematic student Eiri, Ritsu starts to get unluckier everyday.

AN UNTRUMPETED CATHOLIC HERO IN JAPAN: THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE CATHOLIC SHIMABARA REBELLION

Katai relates in his memoirs, Tokyo no Satijineti Thirty Years in Tokyō , that Koyo had shown great admiration for the concise description displayed by Zola in La Faute de V Abbe Mouret. Thus it was that he was unable to advance directly to the strict scientific method of Zola, and the first Waseda Bungaku was merely a vehicle for the introduction of Shakespeare, criticism of events in the literary world, and announcements of various artistic activities.

Eishirou Sugata

For the first twenty years of Meiji, as we have said before, there was much superficial imitation, introduction, and admiration of Western civilization, and since even when this was not the case, there were efforts to bring Japan abreast with the times in some degree, while preserving the old atmosphere of the previous era, we can call this period generally one of education or enlightenment. Regarding haku count, mata counts as two haku.

Tachi

There is some reason in making only two periods based on Naturalism, but still this means an over-emphasis on the modern significance of this movement. Even though his style was not entirely free from kambun influence, he was thorough-going in his method, and it was a brilliant translation of high literary value. Since the Zolaism of Tengai and Kafū also was nothing more than a superficial imitation of realism and had not yet passed through a Romantic awakening, it did not bear much fruit in actual works.

AN UNTRUMPETED CATHOLIC HERO IN JAPAN: THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE CATHOLIC SHIMABARA REBELLION

There are beginnings and an end to all life, which underlines the fact that all things must come to an end, and to the Japanese, the end death is equally as important as the beginning birth. Plus this is an original, which always entails a fair amount of uncertainty. Roan, Soho, Roka, Ruikd, and Tenshin also were men who were nurtured by Anglo-American ideas.
