The slogans at the time included: Lucky , Dynamic , Yes , Colorful , for You, Happy , New Start! One reason this is so is due to distinct laterals between English and Korean languages, which affects the articulatory and acoustic characteristics of the languages. If you have studied Japanese, you may notice some similarities. A multitude of 'lishes': The nomenclature of hybridity.

Usage of English loanwords in Korean makes me so sad. Can anything be done to reverse this trend? : Korean

Especially with the amount of most recent theoretical work on these languages, the field of theoretical East Asian linguistics has been fast growing.
