Whether the manufacture of oleomargarine, or imitation butter, of the kind described in the statute, is or may be conducted in such a way, or with such skill and secrecy, as to baffle ordinary inspection, or whether it involves such danger to the public health as to require, for the protection of the people, the entire suppression of the business rather than its regulation in such manner as to permit the manufacture and sale of articles of that class that do not contain noxious ingredients, are questions of fact and of public policy which belong to the legislative department to determine. It has always been supposed to secure to every person the essential conditions for the pursuit of happiness, and is therefore not to be construed in a narrow or restricted sense. With respect to the language of Section 610 9 , specifically, had the legislature intended to punish only those persons who acted with criminal intent, it would have so stated.

COMMONWEALTH of Pennsylvania, v Paul David CREWS Research Paper

It is the agency s province to assess whether a violation has occurred and whether to expend resources on one particular enforcement action as opposed to another. I really want to point out that the days we are talking about are not so far removed, that the stigma attached to mental retardation is still with us, with the general public.

If that which is forbidden is not injurious to the health or morals of the people, if it does not disturb their peace or menace their safety, it derives no validity by calling it a police or health law. Its validity is rested simply upon the fact that it has pleased the legislature of the commonwealth to declare that the article shall not be manufactured or sold or kept for sale within its limits. This result occurs because the I.
