Resolving ethnic conflict

It can be said that the politics of ethnicity and nationalism in southeast Asia arises from the enhanced appeal of ethnic and national stereotypes for people experiencing diverse insecurities, giving rise to inter-ethnic distrust as well as intra-ethnic factionalism. Cultural or linguistic identity are key ethno-political dynamics. For the first time since the establishment of colonial rule, firearms in large numbers were controlled by Southeast Asians.

Tracing the Rise of Nationalism in Indonesia: An Important Period of Indonesian History

Researchers focusing on the dominant ethnies stress the need for conceptualizing the minority—majority dynamics in ethnic politics. Horowitz also recognizes that territorial boundaries determine ethnic boundaries, which are mutable but do not change for the sake of mere economic interest or convenience Horowitz :66. A

Learn more about East Asian ethnicity

Warfare with other groups is a major force in fostering the subjective belief of communality within an ethnic group. Sankaran Krishna studies how postcolonial political regimes favoring ethnic majorities cause ethnic conflict. According to Sandra Harding, the postcolonial standpoint defends an interactionist global history against a Eurocentric isolationist history.

Ethnicity, Nationalism, and Migration in Southeast Asia

Prosperity, education, and increasing access to world media and popular culture all gave rise, for example, to various degrees of dissatisfaction with government-imposed limitations on freedom and to social and environmental.

Ethnicity, Nationalism, and Colonialism

Later, Deutsch recognized that modernization could also enable ethnic groups to mobilize against the emerging nation-state. Ten authors discuss the relations between ethnic minorities and the nation state in Southeast Asia in colonial and modern times.

Tracing the Rise of Nationalism in Indonesia: An Important Period of Indonesian History

After several years of revolt, the Han Dynasty, from the northern part of China and Korea, began in 206 B. The study of nationalism offers a fruitful connection among these fields.
